Securities and Exchange Act
(No. 6)
B.E. 2562

HIS MAJESTY KING MAHA VAJIRALONGKORN
BODINDRADEBAYAVARANGKUN, REX.,

Given on the 15th day of April B.E. 2562;
Being the 4th Year of the Present Reign.

His Majesty King Maha Vajiralongkorn Bodindradebayavarangkun is graciously pleased to proclaim that:

Whereas it is expedient to amend the law on securities and exchange;

This Act contains certain provisions related to the restriction of rights and liberties of a person, which Section 26 in conjunction with Section 32, Section 37 and Section 40 of the Constitution of the Kingdom of Thailand so permit by virtue of law;

The justification and necessity for the restriction of rights and liberties of a person under this Act is to ensure that the supervision of the capital market and the execution of transactions related to the capital market are efficient, transparent and protect investors' interest, and to accommodate changes in the capital market and the development of innovations and financial technologies, as well as to promote the competitiveness and growth of the Thai capital market. In this regard, the enactment of this Act complies with the conditions specified under Section 26 of the Constitution of the Kingdom of Thailand;

Be it, therefore, enacted by His Majesty the King, by and with the advice and consent of the National Legislative Assembly, as follows:

SECTION 1 This Act shall be called the "Securities and Exchange Act (No. 6) B.E. 2562".

SECTION 2 This Act shall come into force on the following day of its publication in the Government Gazette.

“SECTION 91/1 To ensure that the supervision of the undertaking of securities businesses is appropriate for the nature of business undertaking and proportionate to the necessity of investor protection, the SEC may prescribe that the license holder who undertakes business in a specified manner be exempted from undertaking or undertake in a different manner from the provisions under Division 2: Supervision and Control of this Chapter, in whole or in part.

The SEC shall also have the power to issue regulations or conditions for the license holder in the first paragraph to comply with.”

SECTION 14 The provision in Section 96 of the Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535, as amended by the Securities and Exchange Act (No. 2) B.E. 2542, shall be repealed and replaced with the following provision:

“SECTION 96 The SEC may require a securities company to have a paid-up registered capital in an amount specified for operation of securities business in any particular category or manner.”

SECTION 15 The following provision shall be added as Section 124/1 of the Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535:

“SECTION 124/1 For the management of a mutual fund, a securities company shall proceed with honesty and care to preserve the interests of all unitholders, using knowledge and competence as a professional.

The securities company shall have a policy on prevention of conflicts of interest in managing a mutual fund and shall monitor and oversee acts that may cause a conflict of interest to the unitholders and any acts that may have an unfair characteristic toward the unitholders or may cause the unitholders to lose interest that should be received. In this regard, the securities company shall comply with the rules, conditions and procedures as specified in the notification of the Capital Market Supervisory Board.”

SECTION 16 The provisions in Section 129 of the Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535 shall be repealed and replaced with the following provision:

“SECTION 129 For the management of a mutual fund, a securities company shall proceed in accordance with the mutual fund project which has been approved by the SEC

Office.

Revision or modification of the mutual fund project or revision to the management procedure shall be made through the resolution of the unitholders which shall be sought either from the unitholders' meeting or through the letter seeking the unitholders' resolution.

The securities company shall notify the revision and modification of the mutual fund project or the management procedure to the SEC Office and all unitholders and shall publish such revision and modification in a manner accessible by investors within fifteen days from the date of the resolution."

SECTION 17 The following provisions shall be added as Section 129/1, Section 129/2, Section 129/3 and Section 129/4 of the Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535:

"SECTION 129/1 For a revision or modification of a mutual fund project or revision to the management procedure in the following cases, the securities company may seek an approval of the SEC Office in lieu of seeking the resolution of the unitholders in accordance with the second paragraph of Section 129:

- (1) change of the criteria for sale and redemption of investment units;
- (2) increase in the types of investment units without diminishing the existing rights of the unitholders;
- (3) proceeding in compliance with the provisions of this Act;
- (4) revision or modification of a mutual fund project or revision to a management procedure in the manner specified by the notification of the SEC Office.

SECTION 129/2 With regard to unitholders' meeting under Section 129, the quorum of the unitholders' meeting shall constitute at least twenty-five unitholders or half of the total number of the unitholders, and the total investment units of the attending unitholders shall be not less than one third of the total investment units sold of the mutual fund project.

In the case where any unitholders' meeting fails to form a quorum in accordance with the criteria specified in the first paragraph after one hour has lapsed, the securities company may call for a new unitholders' meeting for which the quorum is no longer required.

The resolution of the unitholders shall be derived from the majority votes of the total investment units of the attending unitholders with the voting right unless the Capital Market Supervisory Board requires more votes than the majority votes.

The provisions in the first paragraph, the second paragraph and the third paragraph shall apply to the seeking of the unitholders' resolution through a letter requesting the unitholders' resolution, mutatis mutandis.

SECTION 129/3 The sending of a notice calling a meeting or a letter requesting the unitholders' resolution, the information requirement in such notice or letter, the meeting holding, the voting rights, the proxy and any other proceeding related to the seeking of the unitholders' resolution shall be in accordance with the rules, conditions and procedures specified in the notification of the Capital Market Supervisory Board.

SECTION 129/4 In seeking the unitholders' resolution at any time, either by holding the unitholders' meeting or sending a letter seeking the unitholders' resolution, if the unitholders view that the resolution that has been passed that time is not in compliance with the law or that the securities company violates or fails to comply with Section 129/2 or violates or fails to comply with the rules, conditions or procedures specified under Section 129/3, at least five unitholders holding collectively at least one fifth of the total investment units sold of the mutual fund project may seek the court's order to revoke the resolution within forty-five days from the date of the resolution.”

SECTION 18 The following provisions shall be added as Division 8/1: Securities Business Specified by the Minister, Section 140/1 of Chapter 4: Securities Business under the Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535:

“Division 8/1
Securities Business Specified by the Minister

SECTION 140/1 A securities company in the category of securities business under (7) of the definitions of the term, “securities business” under Section 4 shall operate business in accordance with the rules, conditions and procedures as specified in the notification of the Capital Market Supervisory Board.”

“SECTION 154/1 The Securities Exchange shall promote and maintain the integrity, fairness, accountability and orderliness in the trading of securities listed on the Securities Exchange, taking into consideration the benefits of the capital market and investor protection.

SECTION 154/2 For the operation of the Securities Exchange to be in accordance with Section 153 and Section 154/1, the Securities Exchange shall undertake at least the following matters:

(1) sufficient financial resources and systems for the performance of its operation and for the assumption of any risks associated with the operation of the Securities Exchange including contingency measures to accommodate any emergency situations;

(2) system for securities trading, system for recording and disseminating information regarding price quotation and securities trading, system for surveillance of securities trading, and system for clearing and settlement of securities, which promote and maintain the integrity, efficiency and fairness in the trading of securities;

(3) rules concerning the admission of members which are fair, rules for members to comply with in the trading of securities, and supervisory measures and enforcement on non-compliance with its rules;

(4) rules concerning the listing of securities, the maintenance of status as listed securities, the delisting of listed securities, and the disclosure and corporate governance of listed securities issuers;

(5) measures to prevent and resolve conflicts of interest; and

(6) efficient and fair arrangement for the handling of complaints or disputes.

In the case where the SEC views that any undertaking in accordance with a particular matter under the first paragraph may affect the integrity, cause unfairness, or bring about disorderliness in the trading of securities listed on the Securities Exchange, the SEC shall instruct the Securities Exchange to amend or modify or revoke such undertaking.”

SECTION 20 The provision in Section 159 of the Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535 shall be repealed and replaced with the following provision:

“SECTION 159 There shall be a board of directors of the Securities Exchange comprising not more than six persons appointed by the SEC in accordance with the procedures specified by Section 159/1, and not more than four persons elected by the members under Section 158 to serve as director, and the manager of the Securities Exchange shall ex officio be a director of the Securities Exchange.

The board of directors of the Securities Exchange shall elect a director who is not the manager of the Securities Exchange to be chairman and may also elect another director of the Securities Exchange to be vice chairman.”

SECTION 21 The following provision shall be added as Section 159/1 of the Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535:

“SECTION 159/1 The persons appointed by the SEC to be directors of the Securities Exchange shall have knowledge and experience essential to the operation of the Securities Exchange, and are appointed from the list proposed by the juristic persons or groups of persons involved with the capital market.

The SEC shall specify the notification of the rules and procedures for the selection and appointment of directors of the Securities Exchange under the first paragraph, which shall at least contain the details of knowledge or experience essential to the operation of the Securities Exchange, and types or characteristics of juristic persons or groups of persons involved with the capital market who are entitled to propose persons to be selected and appointed as director of the Securities Exchange.”

SECTION 22 The following provision shall be added as Section 160/1 of the Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535:

“SECTION 160/1 In the case where it is evident to the members under Section 158 that the operation of the Securities Exchange requires certain specialized knowledge or experience of a person who does not have Thai nationality, the members under Section 158 may elect not more than two of such persons as director of the Securities Exchange.”

SECTION 23 The provision under Section 161 of the Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535 shall be repealed and replaced with the following provision:

“SECTION 161 The directors, except the manager, of the Securities Exchange shall hold office for a term of three years and may be re-appointed or re-elected, but shall not hold office for more than two consecutive terms.”

SECTION 24 The provision in the third paragraph of Section 170 of the Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535 shall be repealed and replaced with the following provision:

“The determination or revision and modification of the rules or regulations under the second paragraph shall become effective upon approval of the SEC; in this regard, the SEC shall consider and notify the result of its consideration to the Securities Exchange within sixty days from the date of receipt of such proposed rules or regulations.”

SECTION 25 The following provisions shall be added as the fourth paragraph, the fifth paragraph and the sixth paragraph of Section 170 of the Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535:

“In the case where the determination or revision and modification of the rules or regulations under the second paragraph may affect the business operation or interest of members, investors or stakeholders of the Securities Exchange, the Securities Exchange shall arrange a hearing for such persons and submit a report to the SEC on such hearing in support of the consideration for approval of the proposed rules or regulations.

The approval of the rules or regulations in accordance with the third paragraph and the arrangement of a hearing in accordance with the fourth paragraph shall not apply to the rules or regulations under (14), (15) or (16) of the second paragraph and any other rules or regulations as specified in the notification of the SEC.

Rules and regulations related to the election of the directors of the Securities Exchange under (3) of the second paragraph shall specify details of knowledge or experience essential to the operation of the Securities Exchange.”

SECTION 26 The following provision shall be added as Section 182/1 of the Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535:

“SECTION 182/1 The Securities Exchange shall contribute money to the Capital Market Development Fund under Section 218/2 within one-hundred and fifty days as of the end date of the calendar year at a rate not less than ninety percent of the income after deducting expenses, taxes and reserves; in this regard, the consolidated financial statements of the Securities Exchange shall be used for the calculation of the amount of money to be contributed.

The arrangement of the reserves under the first paragraph shall be in accordance with the type and amount specified by the board of directors of the Securities Exchange, and the Securities Exchange shall disclose the information related to the arrangement of such reserves in a manner available for public access.”

SECTION 27 The provision under the third paragraph of Section 184 of the Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535, as amended by the Securities and Exchange Act (No. 4) B.E. 2551, shall be repealed and replaced with the following provision:

“The board of directors of the Securities Exchange may specify that a person other than a securities company which is a member of the Securities Exchange is allowed to conduct the purchase or sale of a particular type of listed securities on the Securities Exchange.”
