Alert to ECF246A bondholders on the exercise of rights at the Bondholders' Meeting on 8 April 2026

East Coast Furnitech Public Company Limited (ECF), as the issuer of ECF246A, convened the Bondholders' Meeting No. 1/2026 on 27 March 2026. As certain agenda items did not meet the quorum requirements as stipulated under the terms and conditions, and given that all agenda items were interrelated, the company will reconvene the meeting on 8 April 2026 at 14.00 hrs., to be held as an electronic meeting (E-Meeting). Key matters proposed for consideration and approval include:

- (1) Granting a waiver for an event of default arising from the issuer's failure to repay the interest on the maturity date under the terms and conditions, and a waiver of default interest;
- (2) Granting waivers for certain events, which shall not constitute events of default under the terms and conditions;
- (3) Revocation or cancellation of actions taken by the bondholders' representative in relation to events of default;
- (4) Amendment of the interest payment terms.

The Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) requires the bondholders' representative to provide a clear analysis of the advantages, disadvantages, benefits, and potential impacts on bondholders for both approval and disapproval of the proposed matters, including comprehensive supporting reasons and the opinion of the bondholders' representative. Accordingly, the SEC urges bondholders to carefully review all information and exercise their rights to safeguard their interests. Bondholders should also seek clarification from the bondholders' representative to ensure they have complete and sufficient information before making a voting decision at the bondholders' meeting.
