SEC provides information regarding the case of Miss Supaporn Pimphong

Mr. Anek Yooyuen, Deputy Secretary-General and Spokesperson of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), stated, “Regarding media reports referring to a case in which Miss Supaporn Pimphong, a Bangkok resident, has not been contacted by the SEC or the police, the SEC clarifies that she is not the same person as the individual who submitted information under Form 246-2. The SEC confirms that it is currently working with the Economic Crime Suppression Division (ECD) to invite Miss Supaporn Pimphong, who is the Form 246-2 reporting person, to be interviewed by SEC officers and inquiry officials.”
